Baroness Warsi Politician of Conscience Stands for Justice and

& Human Rights Over Politics

London , 21.01.2024, 11:32 Time

USPA NEWS - Baroness Sayeeda Warsi, throughout her life chose the profession of justice and then went into Parliament to pursue her aim and objective, justice and human rights. The British Baroness, in the House of Lords UK Parliament, has never compromised her conscience or principles in this regard. Baroness Waris has won the hearts and minds of the likeminded public, nationally and internationally by standing up for the oppressed, supressed and exploited. She has always challenged injustice and atrocities being carried out against defenceless men, women and children around the world, said Shazada Hayat President UICF (UK) and international community welfare campaigner.

This week was no exception when Baroness Warsi made a Tweet (X), where she stated, “World’s indifferences” to the suffering of Palestinians has let Houthis to believe that, “The world only cares when violence is committed by them not against them.” Some members of the Conservative Party, the negative elements, took the opportunity to spread outrage, by demanding that Baroness Warsi be expelled from the Conservative Party. Some members of the Conservative Party made derogatory and defamatory remarks, which were stated in the Express.

Those Tory MP’s accuse Baroness Warsi of being an unelected apologist for terrorists. They even went further by stating that Baroness Warsi is supporting terrorists, and that she has no place in the Conservative Party. These negative Conservative Party members have deliberately failed to understand what and why Baroness Warsi was trying to say and made the said Tweet (X). It was purely and primarily in the name of justice, as per the wishes of the British and American public.

Accusing Baroness Warsi of being an unelected Member of Parliament, when in fact the entire over 600 Lords and Baronesses in the House of Lords are unelected. Furthermore, the former Prime Minister David Cameron, who is the current Foreign Secretary of Britain, is in fact an unelected Member of Parliament and Foreign Minister of United Kingdom.

Shazada Hayat went on to say, The overwhelming public in Britain and around the world, have carried out record breaking demonstrations against the Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu, who has ordered the indiscriminate slaughter of innocent men, women and children in Gaza. The British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak and the President of United States Joe Biden, instead of listening to the outcry of the British and American public and the people around the world to stop PM Benjaman Netanyahu ordering the slaughtering of the innocent men, women and children, instead are shocked that the British Prime Minister and the President of United States are arming PM Benjamin Netanyahu to continue his heinous crime of genocide.

What has also shocked the public around the world, instead of British Prime Minister Rishi Sunak and the President of United States Joe Boden helping to stop the carnage in Gaza, and stop supplying arms to PM Benjamin Netanyahu, they have gone further to attack on the Houthis of Yemen, who have tried to help the victims of Gaza, by stopping ships carrying arms to Israel. The public demand answers, how can it be justice when PM Netanyahu of Israel is ordering his military to bomb hospitals, homes, and kill defenceless men, women and children and even babies who are on life support machine. So far over 25,000 defenceless innocent Palestinians have been slaughtered, which PM Rishi Sunak and President Joe Biden are fully supporting.

The answer is simple. In history, these great messengers of God stood against oppression, exploitation and injustice and took on the tyrants and did not support them. In defence and support of Baroness Warsi, an overwhelming number of Conservative MP’s have said that Baroness Warsi made a very important and valid point.

Baroness Warsi highlighted the root cause of extremism, which cannot be ignored and brushed under the carpet. Baroness Warsi has the full support of the likeminded British public, not just from the Conservative Parliamentarians, but in fact cross-party Parliamentarians who stand solidly behind Baroness Sayeeda Warsi. Baroness Sayeeda Warsi is a politician of conscience and a compassionate parliamentarian, who has put principles before her personal ambition and politics. This is the reason the international community in Britain sees the great Baroness as a lioness in UK Parliament, who symbolises justice must be done and all forms of human rights violation must be challenged and eradicated wherever in the world, said Shazada Hayat.
